

Oriental Cooking Club

Wednesday, 14 April 2010 12:47

I organize cooking classes for English-speaking students who love cooking and would like to learn Mandarin Chinese or Thai with me. Classes will include not only open discussion on food and cookery but also cultural and language exchange between Thai, Mandarin and Finnish. Please contact me to further discuss how to attend.

Remarks: The cooking club starts each time with a small group of 10-30 people.
